Stipulations

The Hirst Landry award is for students who are planning a career in the visual arts. This application is portfolio based and is in line with what most post-secondary institutions require for admission. Even if you are not selected to receive this award, some or all of this application could be used in your application portfolio to post-secondary institutions.

Submit 5 images (jpg or pdf) of artwork completed in the last 1-2 years*.

- Make selections that represent your interests and skills
- Work can include 2D and 3D work using traditional or non-traditional materials. Make selections that best represent your diversity of interests and skills. Select and use materials and techniques that suit your ideas.
- At least 50% of your portfolio work should be original, self-directed projects (not projects from a class)
- Talk to your art teacher about how to take photos of your work, or look online for “how to take photos of artwork”. Quality photography matters!
- Name images: First Name Last Name #. For example: “John Smith 1”

Submit a 5-10 pg pdf of sketchbook work*.

- The pages could be of ideas that you are exploring, research for projects or skills you are trying to learn. The drawings do not need to be complete.
- Use any method you like to make the pdf, but an easy way is to paste an image of one drawing per page in a word document and then save as a pdf or do a multi-page scan on a photocopier.
- Name it: First Name Last Name Sketchbook. For example: “John Smith Sketchbook”

*It is highly recommended that you look at the admission portfolio requirements for the post secondary institutions you are applying to. Select artwork that you can use both for this award and for your admissions portfolio.
